

Peer Evaluation for Team 138

1. All of us set reasonable expectations for what tasks we would complete and by when we would complete them, and we meet those expectations.
2. All of us accurately communicate our skills, availability, and time constraints to our teammates so that we could set reasonable expectations for each of us.
3. All of us attend all project meetings and show up on time, so as not to waste anyone's time.
4. When faced with project problems (whether technical or social), all of us communicate those problems to teammates constructively and unemotionally so that they could adapt their behavior as needed.
